0:01 Kyle Samuel, President of M&T Insurance M&T Insurance is about helping our clients reduce risk and improve employee productivity, and we do that by providing risk management employee benefits and risk management consulting solutions.

0:12 Michelle Adymy, Senior Insurance Claims Consultant M&T Insurance takes a customized approach to every client that we service.

0:15 Bart Kresse, WNY Market Leader No two businesses are alike and therefore no two risk management programs are alike so it's very important for us to understand all the different dynamics and parts of a business so that we can put together a risk management plan that's going to properly protect our customers.

0:29 Timothy Domanico, Claims and Loss Control Manager A client can expect a partnership with our claims and loss control team that identifies risks and threats to their organization and a plan to help control them.

0:37 Richard Jachim, Senior Insurance Claims Consultant Being part of the M&T team, a top regional lender, gives us access to the resources that M&T has and everyone at M&T Risk Management has a specific set of skills that they bring to the table.

0:51 Timothy Domanico, Claims and Loss Control Manager We start with a loss analysis that uncovers their problems, and we discuss and develop a service and loss control plan to help mitigate those risks.

1:01 Michelle Adymy, Senior Insurance Claims Consultant It's a constant reassessment of a client's needs with M&T Insurance.

1:04 Richard Jachim, Senior Insurance Claims Consultant We're not only there when they have a time of need and they have a claim, but also we look at their claim history, claims that could happen in the future. We bring in analytics and loss control and we try to marry all of that together to help mitigate future loss and future risk for the client.

1:21 Michelle Adymy, Senior Insurance Claims Consultant Everything comes down to what the client needs. We are always a phone call away, whatever the need may be. We want our clients to know that when the unfortunate incident happens, we're here to listen to your concerns and we're here to help you gather the information needed to move the claim in the right direction.

1:36 Bart Kresse, WNY Market Leader Properly protecting our customers' businesses is what's important to us.
